

College of Criminology

The Career Center, in conjunction with the Division of Student Affairs and Institutional Research, has administered a survey to graduating seniors for over a decade, asking students about their post-college plans and their overall FSU experience. Of all the College of Criminology graduates from Summer 2014, Fall 2014, and Spring 2015, 513 graduates participated. The data presented in this report are based on responses to the Graduating Senior Survey at the point of graduation with data on employment and continuing education outcomes updated for graduates who responded to the six-month follow-up survey.

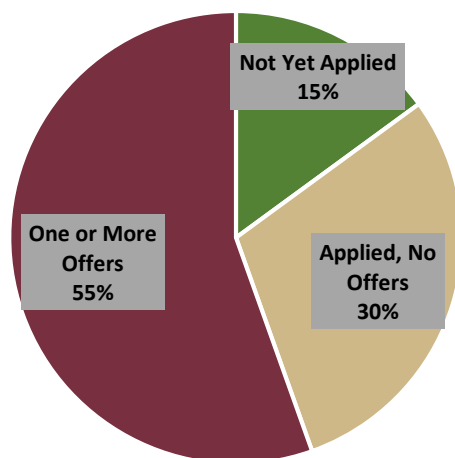

Post-Graduation Plans

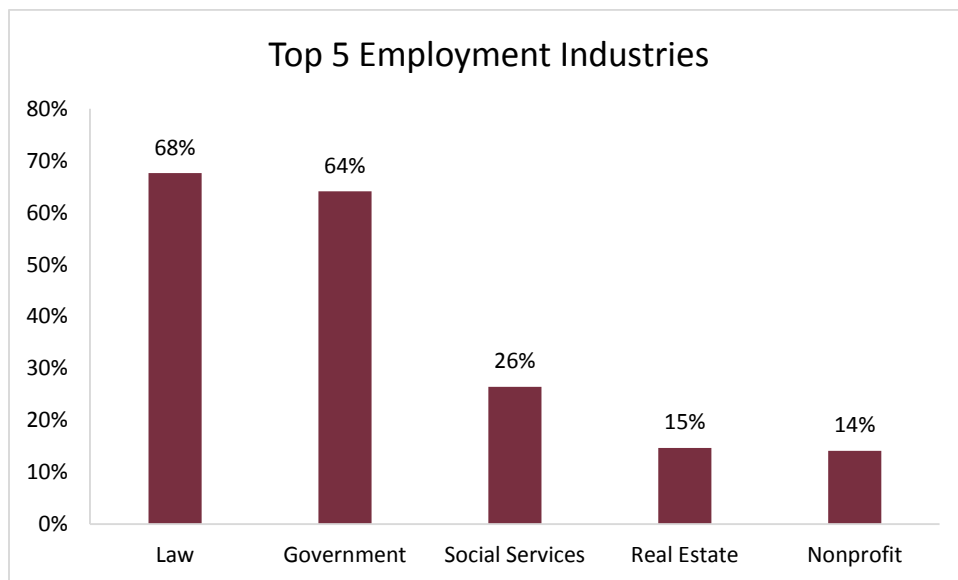

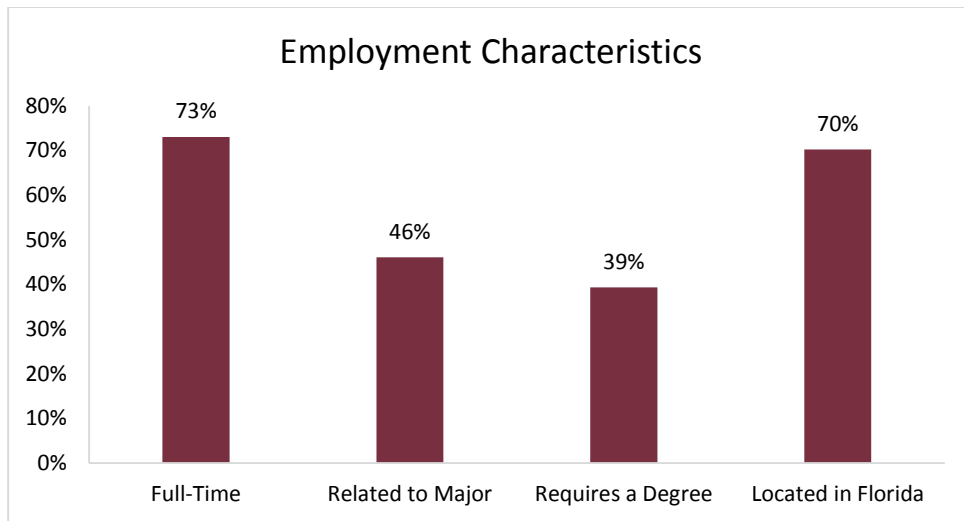

Data indicate that around one-quarter of Criminology graduates are pursuing further education after graduation, and over one half are seeking employment.

Post-Graduation Employment

Over one half of graduates whose primary plan was employment received at least one offer of employment and are employed in a wide variety of industries. Also, Criminology graduates most frequently found jobs that were full-time.

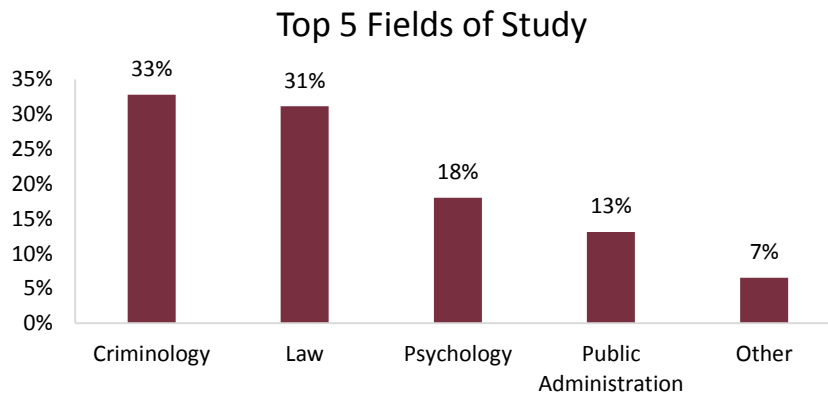

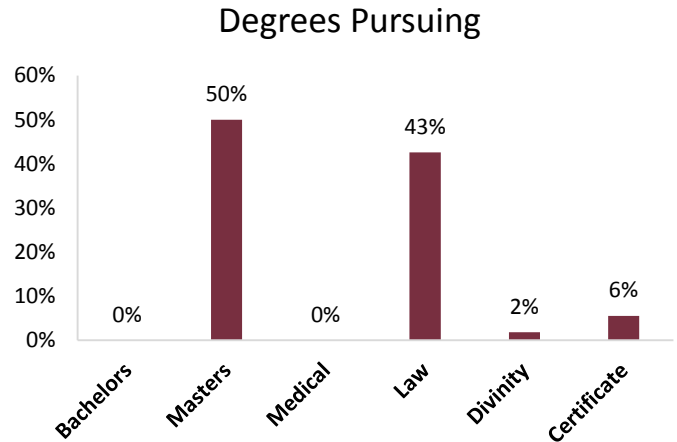

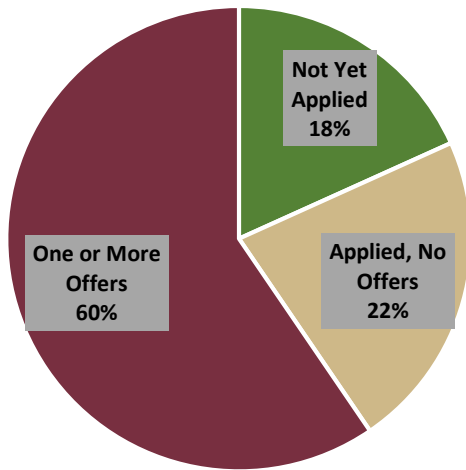

College of Criminology

Post-Graduation Education

Almost two-thirds of graduates whose primary plan was to continue their education in Spring 2015 received at least one offer of acceptance and are studying in a wide variety of fields.

Student Characteristics

Criminology graduates have success both inside and outside of the classroom and participate in various extracurricular activities.

Professional Experience

47% of graduates completed an internship

Giving Back

63% of graduates participated in community service

Campus Involvement

99% of graduates participated in one or more campus activities.

Research Experience

14% of graduates participated in a research project

Global Experience

5% of graduates participated in study abroad

Academic Excellence

4% of graduates participated in the honors program.