Intercollegiate Athletics

The official designations of the men’s teams are the "Seminoles."
Director of Athletics - Dave Hart, Jr.
Associate Directors of Athletics - Charlie Carr, Charles Hurst, Kim Record, Bob Minnix, Pam Overton, Greg Phillips and Andy Urbanic

Men’s Sports

Baseball - Mike Martin - Florida State finished the 2003 season with a 54-13-1 record, won the ACC regular season and the regional championship before falling to the University of Texas in the Super-Regional held in Tallahassee. The Seminoles were ranked 6th in the final Baseball America poll and in the top 10 in all three college baseball polls. It marked the 10th consecutive year that FSU finished ranked in Collegiate Baseball’s top ten. Mark Sauls and Eddie Martinez-Esteve were named to Collegiate Baseball’s Freshman All-American 1st team.

Basketball - Leonard Hamilton - Florida State finished the 2002-2003 season with a record of 14-15 in Hamilton’s first season as head coach. The team finished 7th nationally in field goal percentage defense. Tim Pickett was named to the 2nd team All-ACC team.

Cross Country - Bob Braman - The 2003 Florida State men's cross country team finished in second place in the Atlantic Coast Conference and earned a berth into the National Championships after also finishing runners-up in the South Regional. Bob Braman was named as the ACC Coach of the Year. Joep Tigchelaar and Ian Hornabrook earned all-ACC honors.

Football - Bobby Bowden - In Fall 1991, FSU joined the Atlantic Coast Conference. Since then, the Seminole football team has won at least a share of the conference championship in eleven of the twelve seasons. In 2003, Florida State won the ACC championship and represented the conference in the Orange Bowl. The Seminoles finished ranked 10th in the nation in the final coaches’ poll. During the course of the season, Bobby Bowden became the all-time major college football wins leader, surpassing Joe Paterno. Darnell Dockett, Michael Boulware, Stanford Samuels, Alex Barron and Craphonso Thorpe were all named to the 1st team All-ACC.

Golf - Nicky Goetze - The Florida State men's golf team recorded nine top-10 finishes in 12 events during the 2002-03 season, including 5 in the spring season. At season’s end, Nicky Goetze resigned as coach to resume his professional career. Trey Jones was named as his replacement.

Swimming & Diving - Neil Harper - The Florida State men's swimming and diving team finished second overall at the 2003 Atlantic Coast Conference Championships. The Seminoles sent three qualifiers to the NCAA Championships. Justin Betts and Wickus Nienaber qualified as swimmers, while Louie Gagnet qualified as a diver. Gagnet earned All-American honorable mention at the Championships.

Tennis - Dwayne Hultquist - Florida State finished the 2002-03 season with a record of 15-11 after advancing to the NCAA Championship tournament. Sophomore Mat Cloer was named the ACC Player of the Year and advanced to the NCAA Men’s Tennis Championships.

Track - Terry Long - The 2003 Florida State outdoor men's track and field team won the Atlantic Coast Conference Championship for the second consecutive season and sent thirteen athletes to the NCAA Championships. Rafeeq Curry and Willie Johnson were named as All-Americans. The Florida State men's indoor track and field team also won the ACC Championship, the team’s second crown. Rafeeq Curry, Garrett Johnson and Dorian Scott represented FSU at the 2003 NCAA Indoor Championships. Curry and Scott earned All-American honors. Coach Terry Long earned Coach of the Year for the South Region for the indoor and outdoor season. He retired at the end of the season and will be replaced by cross country coach, Bob Braman.

Source: Florida State University Sports Information Office

Online Resource: The Florida State Athletic Department’s website can be accessed online at www.seminoles.com
The official designations of the women’s teams are the "Seminoles."

Director of Athletics - Dave Hart, Jr.

Associate Directors of Athletics - Charlie Carr, Charles Hurst, Kim Record, Bob Minnix, Pam Overton, Greg Phillips and Andy Urbanic

---

Women’s Sports

Basketball - Sue Semrau - Florida State finished the 2002-03 season with a 17-13 record and earned a berth in the Women’s NIT tournament. Sophomore Tasheika Morris was named to the All-ACC second team. Ganiyat Adeduntan earned honorable mention on the ACC’s All Freshman team.

Cross Country - Bob Braman - After qualifying with a 2nd place finish in the South Region Championship, the Florida State women's cross country team finished 18th in the 2003 NCAA Championships. The Seminoles were led by senior Vicky Gill who finished 11th and junior Natalie Hughes who finished 34th overall, both earning All-American honors. Gill earned Athlete of the Year by the NCAA South Region.

Golf - Debbie Dillman - The Florida State women's golf team participated in the NCAA Regionals for the third consecutive season and qualified for the 2003 NCAA Championship where the Seminoles tied for 19th place. Senior Kristin Tamuli earned All-American Honorable Mention and All-ACC honors.

Soccer - Patrick Baker - The 2003 Florida State soccer team advanced to the College Cup for the first time in the program’s history. The team finished with a 17-8-1 record and competed in the national semifinal game against the University of Connecticut. The Seminoles finished ranked 4th nationally in the final polls. Leah Gallegos, Katie Beal, Kristin Boyle and Joy McKenzie were named to the NSCAA All-Southeast Region team. Gallegos became the first Seminole to earn All-American honors. Coach Baker was named as the National Coach of the Year by Soccer America magazine.

Softball - JoAnne Graf - The 2003 Florida State softball team finished the season with a 46-11 record, won the ACC regular season and tournament championship for the 2003 NCAA Championship where the Seminoles tied for 19th place. Senior Kristin Tamuli earned All-American Honororable Mention and All-ACC honors.

Swimming & Diving - Neil Harper - The Florida State women's swimming and diving team finished third at the 2003 Atlantic Coast Conference Championships. The swimming team was represented in the 2003 NCAA Championships by Emma Dutton, Andree-Anne LeRoy, Loren Hansen, Emily Breen and Jennie Lyes. The diving team, led by coach Patrick Jeffrey, was represented by Tiffany Manning. Chelsie Lerew won her 3rd consecutive ACC Most Valuable Diver at the ACC Championships.

Tennis - Lise Gregory - The Florida State women's tennis team finished the season with a 13-10 record. Sophomore Mihaela Moldovan was named ITA Rookie of the Year.

Track - Terry Long - The Florida State women's outdoor track and field team placed second at the 2003 ACC Championships and sent ten athletes to the NCAA Championships. Lacy Janson, Laura Gerber and the women’s 4x100m team emerged as All-Americans. The Florida State women's indoor track and field team placed in third place at the 2003 ACC Championships. Lacy Janson and Kim Jones advanced to the NCAA Championships where Janson, a sophomore, won the national title by setting a NCAA record in the pole vault. The indoor team finished in 17th place nationally at the indoor championships. Coach Terry Long retired at the end of the season and will be replaced by Bob Braman.

Volleyball - Todd Kress - The 2003 volleyball team finished the season with a 16-17 record. Cassie McLaughlin was named the ACC Freshman of the Year.

Source: Florida State University Sports Information Office

Online Resource: The Florida State Athletic Department’s website can be accessed online at www.seminoles.com